LLIS.gov Resources for the Private Sector

A TOOL FOR ENHANCING NATIONAL PREPAREDNESS

Lessons Learned Information Sharing (LLIS.gov) is a US Department of Homeland Security/Federal Emergency Management Agency program. LLIS.gov serves as the national, online network of lessons learned, best practices, and innovative ideas for the emergency response and homeland security communities. This information and collaboration resource helps emergency response providers and homeland security officials prevent, protect against, respond to, and recover from terrorist attacks, natural disasters, and other emergencies. LLIS.gov provides Federal, State, and local responders with a wealth of information and front-line expertise on effective planning, training, and operational practices across homeland security functional areas.

LLIS.gov at a Glance

- Online since April 19, 2004
- Over 56,000 registered members
- Over 15,000 documents, including more than 1,800 state and local plans, 850 after-action reports, and 1,000 original content documents
- Secure message boards and collaboration tools
- Targeted information on current homeland security topics

PRIVATE SECTOR RESOURCES

The LLIS.gov Private Sector page provides information useful to emergency and security officers in the private sector who may work with governmental first responders and may uphold mutual aid agreements. It also features documents on business continuity and security, such as:

- Beyond Business Continuity: The Role of the Private Sector in Preparedness Planning;
- National Response Framework: Private Sector and Nongovernmental Organizations Response Partner Guide;
- National Security and Private Sector Risk Management for Terrorism; and
- Strengthening America's Cyber Preparedness: Essential Steps for the Public Sector and the Private Sector.

PRIVATE SECTOR DOCUMENTS FOR RESPONDERS

LLIS.gov's Private Sector page includes information that can help emergency responders and homeland security officials better incorporate private sector organizations into their response efforts. The Private Sector page provides LLIS.gov members with a searchable directory of original research, documents, and other information, including:

- Bridging the Gap in Port Security: Network-Centric Theory Applied to Public/Private Collaboration
- Business Emergency Operations Center: Concept Overview
- The Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Regional Business Coalition for Homeland Security (Good Story)
- Information Sharing: Ensuring Public-Private Sector Information Exchange Prior to an Incident
- National Infrastructure Protection Plan: Partnering to Enhance Protections and Resiliency
- Private Sector Emergency Operations: Ensuring the Availability of Information Technology Systems Following an Emergency (Lesson Learned)
